Submitted to His Highness.

These papers relate to the promotion of Mr. I Sreenivasa Murty, Assistant Commissioner, Third class,
Schedule B, to the Second class.

2. Mr. Sreenivasa Murty was promoted to the thi class on the 9th May 1907 and his promotion to the nex higher class is due from 9th May 1910 on rendering app
ed service. During the period Mr. Sreenivasa Murty ha served in Tumkur District from 9th May 1907 to 16th Oc 1908 excepting for a short term of six weeks when he w undergoing Survey training and in Shimoga District dur
the rest of the period. Extract from the confidential port is attached which shows that during the period Mr.
Sreenivasa Murty had rendered approved service. The a verse opinion of Mr. K. Srinivasa Row relate to a peri subsequent to June 1910.

3. Both the Councillors were of opinion that the motion may be sanctioned. I however ordered that the tion should lie over pending the receipt of a report ca
for in respect of the inordinate delay in the disposal
Mr. Sreenivasa Murty of a criminal case in which the a was detained in custody.

Prof 39-11 (10)

4. The report and the connected records have been forwarded by the Chief Court who "consider the delay in the case reprehensible and the Magistrate's explanation therefore inadequate".

5. I had both the files circulated to the Councillors. On the question of promotion both the Councillors are of opinion that the promotion need not be withheld, and I agree. Mr. Sreenivasa Murty may accordingly be promoted to Assistant Commissioners, second class, Schedule B with effect from the 9th of May 1910.

6. In the matter of the delay it is proposed to convey the displeasure of Government at the way the case has been allowed to drag on. The draft of the Government Order is also submitted for the approval of His Highness.
